Comment:

I own property in the East Hatchet Ranch on Horse Creek road and I am concerned about the possible placement of distribution lines within my property where I plan to retire. My property is Agriculture/Residential and I have aspirations of retiring to a quiet beautiful place where I can sit on the porch and enjoy nature. I have experience with High transmission lines where I currently live in Bellingham, Washington in which there is both noise and they are not attractive. Please reconsider placing lines in a subdivided area that has residential possibilities.

Thank you,
